NUMB 31.

THE UNEXAMPLED RAPIDITY WITH WHICH THE INVENTION HAS SPREAD, and the value of its invention induced others to imitate our pattern and sell so as to enable them to sell their inferior goods for the MOLDED COLLAR.

The genuine GRAY'S Collar is designated by two initials, "H. J. F." on the stand-up collar, and "H. J. F. G." on the stand-down, and is made in sizes from 14 to 18 inches, and manufactured by the American Molded Collar Company, of Boston, who have adopted the above arms as their trademarks. This is the original and only patterned collar needed to fit the cravat in the turn-down style.

Consumers will also notice GRAY'S PRIVATE TRADE MARK, "H. J. F. G." on the stand-up collar, see the emblem at head of this advertisement, and the words "Gray's Pat. Molded Collar," with date of patent, on each genuine collar.

The Jeffersonville Excitements—
Two Negroes Killed—A Boy
Wounded.

On several occasions of late we have been called upon to record difficulties at Jeffersonville between soldiers and citizens, and in some instances murders of the most diabolical character have been committed by negro soldiers, and as yet no arrests have been made. The repetition of crimes of this kind have had the effect to cause considerable excitement in the little town of Jeffersonville. The feeling of the citizens, as well as white soldiers, against the negro regiment stationed there is intense, and unless the proper steps are taken to put a stop to the increase of such outrages, we may be called upon to record some of blood which have never before disgraced our little sister city. In the Democrat, a few days since, we were compelled to notice the fact number of a number of persons, some four or five, near Jeffersonville, and one in the town, a soldier belonging to one of the Indiana regiments, who was killed by a negro guard.

We yesterday met several gentlemen who live in Jeffersonville, who related to us the following circumstances, showing that vengeance had, by some person, been wreaked upon two negro soldiers: Monday morning one of this class of persons was found in Port Clinton, plucked to the ground with a bayonet. The person who had killed him left the gun sticking in his body, the bayonet extending through the ground.

On Tuesday morning the body of a dead negro soldier was found in the suburbs of Jeffersonville, shot through the head by some person unknown. Efforts have been made to ferret out the persons who committed the crime, but as yet no clue has been obtained as to the authors.

On Tuesday night a little boy, whose name we were unable to learn, was shot, and badly wounded, by one of the members of the negro regiment. The excitement in Jeffersonville is intense, and we hope that the proper authorities will use every effort to quiet masters and protect the citizens of this hitherto quiet city.
